Students entering Geometry and Geometry Honors don’t have a specific summer packet to complete. If you are concerned about being prepared for the start of the course, it would be helpful if you reviewed your previous textbook during the early part of August just to get your mind “thinking math” again.

See you in August!