Financial Information 2021 – 2022
Upper School | Grade 10

Tuition & Fees

Upper School, Grade 10

Tuition & Fees Total

$35,260

An enrollment deposit of $1,500 (deposit for Flexible Tuition recipients will be adjusted accordingly) is due upon submission of the Enrollment Agreement. The nonrefundable deposit will be applied to the balance on a student’s account.

Payment Options

For your convenience, Hawken School offers a variety of options for paying tuition and fees:

One Payment: You may make one, up-front payment by August 15. With this option, families can elect not to purchase tuition refund insurance.

Two Payments: If you would like to spread your payments out, 60% of your student’s tuition and fees will be billed on July 15 and is due August 15. An invoice for the remaining 40% of tuition and fees will be mailed to you December 15 and payment is due January 15.

Monthly Payments: An alternative of making 10 monthly payments throughout the year is available through FACTS.

Visit hawken.afford.com for more information.

Tuition Refund Insurance:

The Finance Committee of the Board of Trustees requires parents to participate in a tuition refund insurance plan, which involves a premium cost to parents of approximately 0.75% of paid tuition and fees. Parents who pay the full year’s tuition & fees by August 15 may opt out of the tuition refund insurance program.

Flexible Tuition

Flexible Tuition budget: $10.6 million

45% of the student body participates in the Flexible Tuition program

To learn more about Flexible Tuition or to begin the application process, visit hawken.edu/afford

Tuition & Fees include:

• Lunch: A wide variety of nutritious options are available supporting most dietary restrictions and allergies.

• Class Trips and Retreat: In addition to transportation for field trips and service days, transportation is provided between Gates Mills and Hawken’s Gries Center in University Circle for classes and projects. Expenses are also covered for the ninth grade over-night retreat.

• Intensives: Twice a year, High School students engage in one, three-week long course. Associated costs – whether on campus, at the Gries Center, in Cleveland, or in a foreign country – are included in Hawken’s tuition, affording every student life-changing opportunities.

• Onyx yearbook

• Technology fees

• Physical education fees

• Classroom and art supplies

• Accident insurance

Costs not included:

• Tablet computers for new students (Flexible Tuition may be available)

• Parents’ Association dues of $85 per family

• Tuition Refund Insurance

• Transportation

• Summer studies courses (Flexible Tuition may be available)

• Optional club/activity fees

• Musical instrument purchase or rental

• Personal athletic equipment

• Snacks purchased at the café

• Books

For questions regarding payments or individual student accounts, please contact the Business Office at 440.423.2945.