Tuition & Fees

An enrollment deposit of $1,500 (deposit for Flexible Tuition recipients will be adjusted accordingly) is due upon submission of the Enrollment Agreement. The nonrefundable deposit will be applied to the balance on a student’s account.

Payment Options
For your convenience, Hawken School offers a variety of options for paying tuition and fees:

One Payment: You may make one, up-front payment by August 15. With this option, families can elect not to purchase tuition refund insurance.

Two Payments: If you would like to spread your payments out, 60% of your student’s tuition and fees will be billed on July 15 and is due August 15. An invoice for the remaining 40% of tuition and fees will be mailed to you December 15 and payment is due January 15.

Monthly Payments: An alternative of making 10 monthly payments (May – February) is available through Smart Tuition.

Tuition Refund Insurance:
The Finance Committee of the Board of Trustees requires parents to participate in a tuition refund insurance plan, which involves a premium cost to parents of approximately 0.70% of paid tuition and fees. Parents who pay the full year’s tuition & fees by August 15 may opt out of the tuition refund insurance program.

Flexible Tuition

Flexible Tuition budget: $11.5 million

45% of the student body participates in the Flexible Tuition program

To learn more about Flexible Tuition or to begin the application process, visit hawken.edu/afford

Tuition & Fees may include:

• Lunch: A wide variety of nutritious options are available supporting most dietary restrictions and allergies.

• Class Trips: In addition to transportation for field trips and service days, transportation is provided between campuses for classes and projects.

• Intensives: Twice a year, High School students engage in one, three-week long course.

• After-school activities bus to/from University Circle and Gates Mills

• Onyx yearbook

• Technology fees

• Physical education fees

• Classroom and art supplies

• Accident insurance

Costs not included:

• Tablet computers for new students (Flexible Tuition may be available)

• Parents’ Association dues of $85 per family

• Tuition Refund Insurance

• Transportation

• Summer studies courses (Flexible Tuition may be available)

• Musical instrument purchase or rental

• Personal athletic equipment

• Books

For questions regarding payments or individual student accounts, please contact the Business Office at 440.423.2945.